

Women's Health and Safety Conference

January 30–31, 2024

ETFO provincial office
136 Isabella Street, Toronto

This conference supports the leadership development of women members to gain insights, skills, and confidence dealing with health and safety issues in the context of sex and gender. Members will learn about occupational health and safety advocacy and be empowered to exercise their rights in the workplace to support safer worksites for everyone. Topics include:

- ➔ health and safety through a gender lens, covering a range of workplace hazards
- ➔ assertiveness skills training with registered social worker and psychotherapist Bo Yih Thom
- ➔ domestic violence as a workplace hazard

Visit events.etfo.org to register between November 22 and December 6 (by 5 p.m.). A $50 registration fee applies (will be refunded to those not selected to participate).

In accordance with ETFO provincial guidelines, the costs of release time, travel, accommodations, meals, and dependent care are covered.

If you need assistance with registration, please email events@etfo.org.

Selection Criteria

A limited number of spots are available. Preference will be given to:

- ➔ applicants who have not previously attended an ETFO health and safety training program
- ➔ women who self-identify as being from designated groups
- ➔ representation across locals, regions, and/or member groups

For more information, contact:
Tracie Edward at tedward@etfo.org or
Elizabeth Mitchell at emitchell@etfo.org.

